"I Am An American"

*I am an American.
That's the way most of us put it, just matter of factly.
They are plain words, those four.
You could write them on your thumbnail, or you could sweep them clear across this bright autumn sky.
But remember too that they are more than words.
They are a way of life.
So whenever you speak them, speak them firmly;
speak them proudly; speak them gratefully.
I am an American.*

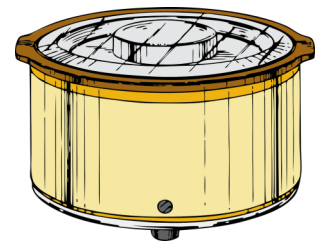

SLOW COOKER BRISKET

Brisket rub:

3T paprika
2T black pepper
2T salt
1T brown sugar
1t chili powder
1t ground cumin

BBQ sauce:

3/4c bbq sauce (your favorite)
1/4c water
1T Worcestershire sauce
1/4t liquid smoke
1/2 onion-sliced into rings

Use about 2 pounds of beef brisket for this recipe.

Mix all rub ingredients in a bowl, rub evenly over the surface of the brisket and place in baggie for at least 30 minutes-over night is even better.

Stir bbq sauce, water, Worcestershire sauce and liquid smoke together in the bottom of the slow cooker, lay the brisket into the sauce mixture and arrange the onions on top of brisket.

Cook on low until brisket is very tender, 6 to 7 hours. Rest the brisket about 10 minutes before slicing or shredding, serve with the sauce left in the slow cooker.

Did you have to memorize the Preamble to the Constitution when you were in history class, did you really even know what those words meant? With Independence Day in a few days, I thought it may be interesting to learn what it really means.

We the people of the United States

all citizens of the US

In order to form a more perfect union to make everything in our country as perfect as possible

Establish justice

begin fairness for all

Insure domestic tranquility

promise that everything in our country will be peaceful

Provide for the common defense

give protection to everyone

Promote the general welfare

care for those in need

Secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity make sure freedom and fairness continues for ourselves/children/their children and all generations to come

Do ordain and establish the Constitution for the United States of America.

SAYINGS AND WHAT THEY MEAN

Penny for your thoughts-asking what someone is thinking

At a drop of a hat-without hesitation

Barking up the wrong tree-looking in the wrong place

Beat around the bush-avoid the main topic

Best thing since sliced bread-a good idea or plan

Bite off more than you can chew-take on a task that is way too big

Costs a arm and a leg-something is very expensive

Jump on the bandwagon-join in

Let sleeping dogs lie-do not disturb a situation

Miss the boat-when someone missed their chance

Once in a blue moon-happens very rarely

Piece of cake-an easy task

Sit on the fence-when someone does not want to make a decision

Take with a grain of salt-do not take something too seriously
