PLAN AHEAD

Here are a couple sheet pan recipes

Sheet Pan Crumb Cake

Crumb:

1 1/2 c brown sugar

2/3 c white sugar

1T cinnamon

1t salt

1c butter-melted

3c flour

Combine both sugars, cinnamon, salt and butter in medium bowl, add the flour and mix until crumbles have formed- DO NOT OVER MIX. Sit aside.

Cake:

3c flour

1 3/4t baking powder

3/4t baking soda

1t salt

3/4c butter-soft

1 3/4c white sugar

3 eggs

1 T vanilla

1 1/4c sour cream

Heat oven to 350 and prepare sheet pan. Whisk together flour, baking powder and soda, and salt. Beat butter and sugar until light and fluffy, about 5 minutes. Three times add flour mixture, 1 egg and sour cream. Beat just until incorporated! Spoon and spread batter (it will be thick) into pan, sprinkle with crumb mixture and lightly press to hold in place. Bake about 40-45 minutes, let cool and serve right out of the pan.

Extra Crunchy Sheet Pan Mac and Cheese

1# macaroni

2c half and half

8oz cream cheese-soft

2c Monterey Jack-shredded

2c cheddar-shredded

2c panko bread crumbs

6T butter-melted

salt/pepper to taste

Heat oven to 400 and prepare sheet pan. In a large pot cook the macaroni according to direction on package. Save 1 1/2 cups of pasta water, drain pasta and set aside. Reheat the pasta water, add the half and half, cream cheese, stirring until the cream cheese is melted. Remove from heat and add the remaining 2 cheeses, stirring until the cheese is all melted and smooth. Add the macaroni to the pot and gently stir to combine, season as you like. Pour the mac onto the baking sheet. Toss the panko and butter in a small bowl and sprinkle evenly over the pasta. Bake until cheese is bubbly and panko crumbs and toasted and crisp, about 20 to 25 minutes.

The OHA Staff wishes each of you a Happy St. Patty's Day and a Blessed Easter!
